From the American Daily Advertiser. MR. Poulson,

The following beautiful lines are from the pen of the late and much lamented Alexander Wilson. The enthusiastic ardour with which he pursued his studies, traversing " an extensive territory of woods and fields unfrequented forests, solitary ranges of mountains, swamps and morasses, in successive journeys of more than ten thousand miles," is well known, no less than his zeal to rescue from unmerited obloquy the character of many species of us-ful birds, whom a blind and mistaken prejudice, handed down from sire to son for many a year, has doomed, as outlaws, to unpitying destructi-

Though the Fish-Hawk has been considered, by many, as a useless member of the feathered tribes, yet it appears "so much respect is baid to him by the fisherman and inhabitints of the neighbourhood, that a person who should attempt to shoot one of them, would stand a fair chance of being insulted."

THE PISH-HAWK OR OSPREY. The regular arrival of this noted Bird at the vernal equinox, when the busy season of fishing commences, adds peculiar interest to its first appearance, and procures it many a benediction from the fisher-With the following lines, illustrative of these circumstances, I shall conclude its history."

Land for Sale. Will be offered at Public Sale, on the premises, by the subscriber, on Monday the 18th day of March next, a valuable Tract of Land, containing about 670 acres. 2.0 of which are in wood of the most useful kinds, lying in Frederick county, Maryland, 1: miles from Frederick town, 212 miles from Liberty-town, and 3 miles from Woodsbury This land is situated on the head waters of I mel's Creek, is in commonly well watered from never failing springs of excellent water, and es two considerable streams passing through it; the soil is good, and remarkably well suited to the use of plaister of Paris, and red clover-the soil is of the blue slate kind, which has been found in the adjoining farms, where plaister of Paris and clover have been used, to improve and yield profitable crops. It is distant from the city of Butimore 40 miles, bor dering on the road leading from thence to Woodsbury, and adjoining to Stevenson's Copper Minc. On this land there are great appearances of rich copper ore; and in addition to the maadvantages it possesses, it is considered to be in a part of the country remarkable for good health. The im provements on this property consist of wo farms, with toterable wooden buildings, apple orchards and some meadow on each, and about 410 acres of cleared land between the two farms. The terms of sale will be one third of the purchase money in hand, and the balance in three or four equal annual payments, on bond with approved security. Any person who may call to view said property will be shewn the same by Capt. Philip Smith living on it.
